You are invited to join us for the 2009 United Way campaign kickoff event!

Mark your calendar for Thursday, August 20th, 5:30-7:30 p.m., Mariners Trail for what will be our most exciting kickoff event yet. Bring your family, friends, and co-workers as we unite and "tie" our communities together. You will definitely want to be a part of this! Our campaign theme this year is Live United, the same as in 2008. Building on that concept, the theme for our kickoff is Hand-in-Hand, we Live United. The kickoff is our public announcement that the annual United Way campaign is beginning. This year, more than ever, we need an event that brings our county together for a common purpose - being united in taking care of one another. We know that these are challenging economic times. We also know that working together makes things just a little better. By uniting, we can make real, long-lasting, positive change in our community and individual lives. The United Way kickoff is THE event that will unite us for a common purpose. Please join us. We need you to ensure that the kickoff is successful. There is no cost to participate. The event will be held rain or shine. You can register as an individual, a family, or as a group - business, church, non-profit, unit of government, service club, etc. Upon registration, you will receive a piece of rope to decorate as you choose. Be creative and show your spirit. Bring the rope to the kickoff, tie your rope to another group's, hold hands, and be part of symbolically "tying" our communities together. We will line the Mariners trail from Manitowoc to Two Rivers. There will be a flyover and aerial photo at 6:00 p.m. Afterward, we ask you to join us for food and refreshments. For more details or to register your group, please visit www.unitedwaymanitowoc.org or call the United Way office at 682.8888.

Summons

Keep me from going to sleep too soon
Or if I go to sleep too soon
Come wake me up. Come any hour
Of night. Come whistling up the road.
Stomp on the porch. Bang on the door.
Make me get out of bed and come
And let you in and light a light.
Tell me the northern lights are on
And make me look. Or tell me clouds
Are doing something to the moon
They never did before, and show me.
See that I see. Talk to me till
I'm half as wide awake as you
And start to dress wondering why
I ever went to bed at all.
Tell me the walking is superb.
Not only tell me but persuade me.
You know I'm not too hard persuaded.

Camoquilt Project

The first camouflage quilt was designed and made by Linda Wieck in April of 2006. Her son-in-law, Todd, was being deployed to Iraq and asked her to make him a quilt to take along. His specifications were that it be small, made from camouflage cloth, and it needed to have cotton batting. While Todd was at Camp Shelby, MS for training prior to being deployed, other soldiers in his unit saw the quilt and wanted to buy one. Todd asked Linda if she could make each of them a quilt and they would pay her for them. She scrambled to finish all 48 before they left for Iraq in July of 2006.

After the local newspaper published an article about her work, one of the readers asked Linda to conduct a workshop to train others to make the quilts. All the money needed for materials and supplies were donated so the quilts could be given to the soldiers free of charge. As the need for more quilts grew it became clear that an occasional week-long workshop wasn't going to be enough to keep the orders filled. A need for a large, ongoing source of committed volunteers to sew quilts was there. One of Linda's volunteers is a Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML) member and felt that LWML could help meet that need! At the South Wisconsin District (SWD) Lutheran Womens Missionary League Fall Retreat, the Camo Quilt Project was presented as an LWML Human Care project.

Glacier Transit and Storage in Plymouth donated a facility for the camo-quilt project use. Not only is there a loading dock and storage space but we have an entire facility large enough to set up a dozen sewing machines with a separate room for cutting. GTS has donated this area for as long as we need it including the heat and electricity. Now we have space for volunteers to drop in and work! We'd love to see you, so stop by and say hi.

One of our most-asked questions is, "Doesn't the military provide them with a quilt?" The answer, sadly, is no. Military-issued sleeping bags are bulky and hot and must be carried inside their back-packs. Our Camo Quilt is so popular because it's made from the same camouflage material as the uniforms. That means it can be used in the open, tied to the outside of a soldier's kit, leaving precious room inside for personal items. The camouflage quilt is a small quilt measuring approximately 45" x 72". The quilt folds in thirds and rolls up like a sleeping bag. It is lightweight and has cotton batting so it breathes better in the extreme heat. These quilts are slept on and slept under; they protect the soldiers from the harsh elements they face, both cold winter nights and hot day-time sun. They are even used for pillows. Any person serving in the military and deployed to the Middle East is eligible to receive one of these quilts! Each quilt is packaged with a cool tie and a hand-made card. The card gives information about the volunteer group and is signed by some of the volunteers. This gives our quilts a very personal touch! There is no charge to the soldiers for the quilts. We just ask that the person requesting the quilts cover the cost of shipping. Volunteers have made and distributed over 1,000 quilts to Soldiers and Marines!

Get Involved - Donations can be sent to Franklin Legion Post 387 c/o Steven Bender, N7417 Bittersweet Road, Plymouth, WI 53073. 100% of donated money is used directly for the quilts we make!

COOL THE FIRE OF ANGER FOR BETTER HEALTH AND HAPPIER RELATIONSHIPS

First of all, let's make it clear that anger is not a "bad" or "negative" emotion, per se. Anger is the emotion that allows us to protect and defend ourselves and only becomes a destructive influence in our lives when we aren't able to express it constructively. When people are thinking about adopting better health habits they usually try to improve their diet, exercise, get a good night's sleep and perhaps take a few herbs and supplements. Few people consider the role that emotions play in their health problems. Even modern medicine recognizes that angry people are at a much higher risk for cardiovascular problems. Anger can damage our health, but health problems can make us more prone to being angry and irritable. There are three primary health issues that can make us feel irritable (easily angered). They are liver toxicity, blood sugar problems, and stress. When our liver is congested and toxic, we tend to feel defensive and irritable. Nature's Sunshine has LIVER BALANCE which has helped many people to be less prone to irritable, angry feelings, headaches, PMS, abdominal pain and indigestion, etc. LIV-J is another formula to help detoxify the liver and reduce anger. Refined carbohydrates cause rapid increases in blood sugar which over-stimulate the brain. Observe a calm child after eating a bunch of sugary foods. The same thing happens to adults, who can become agitated and aggressive after consuming lots of sugar and caffeine. Balance the blood sugar and maintain a positive mood with TARGET ENDURANCE or ENERG-V. If you are tired during the day, but don't sleep well at night, you should definitely get off the sugar and caffeine and consider taking NERVOUS FATIGUE FORMULA OR ADRENAL SUPPORT to rebuild your adrenal glands. And then there is stress...ELEUTERO ROOT was the first adaptogen discovered and is one of the herbs that can be really helpful for anger and irritability brought on by stress. ADAPTAMAX and SUMA COMBINATION are two adaptogenic formulas that counteract fatigue, help the immune system, reduce stress and support a more positive mood.

Student athletes reminded to get physicals before fall sports.

Parents and guardians of high school athletes are reminded to schedule a sports physical appointment for their student in time for the fall season.

Every two years, it is required that students who are involved in high school athletics have a sports physical and hand in a signed examination card from a health care provider.

The WIAA, or Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association, has strict guidelines about the sports physicals students need to complete in order to practice or participate in athletics.

During these physicals, health care providers like myself discuss and examine a student's overall health and family medical history to make sure there are no underlying health conditions that may prevent them from safely participating in sports.

I also perform a scoliosis screening during these exams. Scoliosis is a condition affecting the spine, which can develop during puberty. Normally, a spine should be straight as one bends over in order to naturally absorb stress in your back. However, a person with scoliosis has an 'S' or 'C' curve in their spine, which can affect how he or she plays sports.

A physical examination taken April 1 or later is valid for the following two school years; a physical examination taken before April 1 is valid only for the remainder of that school year and the following school year.

WIAA physical cards are available at Aurora Health Center in Reedsville. Parents should complete the health history section and sign the cards prior to their student athletes' appointment.

Denise Brilliant is a nurse practitioner at Aurora Health Center in Reedsville. To schedule an appointment, call (920) 754-4337. Aurora Health Care is a not-for-profit health care provider and a national leader in efforts to improve the quality of health care.
