Hello everyone,

It is hard to believe 2012 is nearing an end. The Police Department had a good year. We spent a great deal of time this year on property maintenance and upkeep. We know many village residents take pride in their property and some were living next to properties that needed some Tender Loving Care to bring them into compliance with Village Ordinances. We are happy to say almost everyone we worked with took the time and cleaned up and we thank them for their efforts. Our goal is to make this community a safe place to live and somewhere people would want to move to and raise their families. We also spent time working with the schools and other community organizations offering safety presentations and programs. We truly enjoy being out in the community and being invited to participate in your events please feel free to send us any dates for 2013 that we could help out with.

The holiday season is fast approaching and we would like to remind you if you are going to be out of town and would like us to keep an eye on your property give us a call we'll add it to our list. Also remember if you are going to have out of town guests and need extra room on street parking just let us know so we can grant permission and also have your contact information should the plows come out and the vehicle needs to be moved.

From our families to yours we wish you a safe and joyous holiday season.

As always it has been a pleasure to serve you,
Chief Jo Ann Mignon and Officer Joey Tisler

NATURAL CARE FOR ANIMALS

According to the Humane Society, 62% of American households include pets. Our pets don't ask for much—just food, shelter and our companionship, but they offer much in return. They can teach children and adults alike about affection, friendship, responsibility, loyalty, empathy, sharing and unconditional love. Pets can improve the emotional and physical health of elderly people living alone as well as help people heal from psychological trauma and emotional abuse.

Pets can be good for our health, but we are also responsible for caring for their health. Pets get sick for the same reasons human beings do—nutritional deficiencies, environmental toxins, physical injury and emotional stress. As with human beings, the main cause of illness in pets is their diet. Most brands of commercial pet food leave much to be desired. Most pet foods are made from "animal by-products," which is a polite way of referring to all the animals and animal parts discarded as unfit for human consumption. This food can make pets prone to arthritis, parasites and a host of other health problems. So, the number one thing to improve the health of your pets is to make sure they are getting healthy food. Do a little research to learn how to make your own homemade pet food using meat, vegetables and grains or purchase a high-quality, commercially-prepared pet food made with natural ingredients and free of chemical additives. Some basic supplements for pets are HERBAL TRACE MINERALS, LIQUID CHLOROPHYLL, and SUPER OMEGA-3 from Nature's Sunshine. The next newsletter, we will discuss natural remedies for specific health problems in animals. December special - 25% off the retail price of these products

Roman Kugle Memorial Fund

Since the passing of our father, Roman Kugle, on February 18, 2011, our family put aside the memorial donations from friends and family. We wanted to spend time carefully considering what we could do with these funds as a means to honor and pay tribute to our father.

As many of you already know, Roman was born, raised and lived the majority of his life in Reedsville. He was proud to represent Reedsville High School being on the 1946 state championship basketball team. He went on to share his love of basketball by starting the St. Mary's grade school program (part of the Manitowoc County Catholic League) and devoted 17 years to coaching various youth teams.

Our father loved Reedsville equally as much as he loved basketball. With that, we've decided to use the memorial funds to build a full outdoor basketball court on Reedsville Elementary School grounds for use by the entire community. Unfortunately, to accomplish this task, additional funds are needed.

Please join us by honoring our father, and help us give back to the community, through making a donation to the Roman Kugle Memorial Fund. You can make your donation at the Reedsville branch of the Dennmark State Bank.

On behalf of Roman's family, we thank you for your consideration.

There are several types of advance directives, including:

- The Five Wishes® is a Power of Attorney for Health Care document that names a person who can make decisions for you, if you cannot. This person is chosen by you, and named in the document to make certain that your wishes are followed. The document also gives you the opportunity to choose your wishes, and cross out those you do not want by giving clear instructions to follow.
- A Living Will does not name a person to speak for you. Rather, it is a legal document that states your preference for life-support if you are terminally ill or are in a "persistent vegetative state."

If you do not have an advance directive, your health care providers will look to your family or close friends to help make decisions about your care. To order a copy of Five Wishes®, call 1-888-863-5502, or they are available at your clinic site. Denise Brilliant, NP, is a nurse practitioner at Aurora Health Center in Reedsville. To schedule an appointment, call 920-754-4337.

CodeRED Alert Notification System

Manitowoc County has a "layered" emergency warning and notification system that includes sirens, pagers, radio and TV station announcements, and NOAA weather radios. In recent months we've purchased a system called CodeRED that will deliver emergency warning information via cell and land line telephone. CodeRED delivers up to 1000 calls per minute. There is no hardware for the general public to buy and no cost to be registered in the database. The calls can be sent out county wide or in limited geographic areas. Our plan initially is to use CodeRED for severe weather alerts, missing children and elderly, health emergencies, nuclear events and selected public information notices, e.g. power outages and road closures. At this time, an initial calling database has been set up on a secure server. The phone numbers in that database are primarily land line phone numbers. If county residents wish to be notified via cell phone, they must manually enter the number(s) on the Manitowoc County website: www.manitowoccounty.com. Click on the CodeRED icon in the upper right hand corner of the home page. It will bring up a page that will allow one to enter cell phone numbers and/or perhaps a work number. The site is secure and the phone numbers will never be made public. If you need assistance entering your number, please call the Emergency Management Office at 683-4207.

Letting others know your health care wishes

If you should become terminally ill or incapacitated, you still have the right to say "yes" or "no" to medical care and treatment options. But what if you became unable to speak for yourself? You should discuss your wishes with your family and health care provider. One way to make your wishes known is to put them in writing through an advance directive, like the Five Wishes® document or Aurora's Power of Attorney for Health Care. Make sure a copy of your completed document is given to your health care provider.
