Dear Citizens of Reedsville,

I want to express my appreciation for the opportunity I had to serve as the Police Chief for the Village of Reedsville for four years. It was very educational to say the least.

The Village Board informed me, unexpectedly, they were going in a new direction. With that, I want to congratulate and welcome JoAnn Mignon as Reedsville's new Police Chief.

I am looking forward to working with Chief Mignon as I will be working full time patrol for the Village of Reedsville. With God's guidance and blessing I am looking forward to serving the village to the best of my ability. Currently I am recovering from an injury and expect to be back working patrol in the near future.

Sincerely,

Officer Deb Grimm

Getting to Know Reedsville

I would like to say the past month has been very informative. I think we are getting the hang of things. Most of you have seen Officer Bastian or I and we would like to thank you for the warm welcome we have received. Officer Grimm and Officer Tisler are still recovering from injuries but we wish them well and hope they will return soon. I want to say I have truly enjoyed getting to know many of the Village Residents. One question I have been asked is "are there two officers on duty at a time" the answer to this is usually not. Some residents have seen me at basketball games or other events and also the officer on duty. I truly enjoy attending these community events and most of the time am not on duty so if you see two of us there don't worry your tax dollars are not going to waste I'm probably there on my own time. Now could there be a special circumstance or event which requires more officers yes and if that were the case you may see two of us in uniform or working. The Reedsville Police Department has a very good working relationship with the schools and will attend many events and assist with traffic or any other needs if necessary. If you happen to see any of us out and about please feel free to say hello.

Have a great month.
-Chief Jo Ann Mignon

Help Stem the Tide of Obesity in America

Obesity has been linked to many life threatening diseases, including cardiovascular disease, type 2 diabetes, sleep apnea and certain types of cancer. The past 20 years has seen a dramatic increase in obesity in this country. In 2008, only one state (Colorado) had a prevalence of obesity less than 20%. Thirty-two states had a prevalence equal to or greater than 25%; six states had prevalence of obesity equal to or greater than 30%. Source: <http://www.cdc.gov/obesity/data/trends.html#State>

Obesity affects children and adolescents too. Data from NHANES surveys (1976-1980 and 2003-2006) show that the prevalence of obesity has increased: children 2-5 increased from 5% to 12.4%, children 6-11 increased from 6.5% to 17%, and ages 12-19 increased from 5% to 17.6%. Source:

www.cdc.gov/obesity/childhood/index.html

According to study of national costs attributed to both overweight and obesity, medical expenses accounted for 9.1% of total U.S. medical expenditures in 1998 and may have reached as high as $78.5 billion and in 2002 as high as $92.6 billion.

Approximately half of these costs were paid by Medicaid and Medicare.

Rallie McAllister, M.D., MPH, MSEH, and author of Breakthrough: The Nutrition Prescription for Maximum Weight Loss Success walks you step-by-step through basic nutrition needs and ways to optimize your health while meeting your weight-loss goals. Perhaps you are saying why can't I lose weight? According to Dr. McAllister the answer to your weight loss struggles lies in your resistance factors. Virtually every overweight individual has a least one of five common resistance factors that impede weight loss. Until these resistance factors are identified and overcome, it is impossible to achieve long-term results. Dr. McAllister is a seminar speaker for Nature's Sunshine and has a self-assessment brochure that helps you determine your resistance factors. Some of the weight-loss products that Dr.

McAllister

recommends are: Metabo Max, Fat Grabbers, CarboGrabbers, CLA, Collatrim, Nature's Cortisol, and NutriBurn which is a meal replacement drink.

Women: Understand your risk for heart disease

Women, often underestimate their risk of developing heart disease. Each year approximately 2.5 million women nationwide are treated for cardiac problems. Most women are surprised to learn they are twice as likely to die from heart disease as cancer.

Although progress is being made, heart disease in women is often misdiagnosed or diagnosed late in the disease process. Heart disease may present different symptoms in women than in men.

Warning symptoms in women may include the following:

- Uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of the chest lasting more than a few minutes
- Jaw pain radiating down to the neck and arm
- Upper back pain without apparent cause
- Indigestion/upper abdominal pain
- Shortness of breath with mild exertion
- Chronic fatigue without reason
- Racing or irregular heartbeat
- Heart palpitations - very strong or fast
- Unexplained perspiration or cold sweat
- Lightheadedness, fainting, dizziness
- Paleness
- Nausea

If you experience the above symptoms, seek help fast.

Some risk factors for heart disease can't be controlled, such as increasing age, family health history, race and gender.

But women can modify, treat or control many other important risk factors to lower their overall risk. They can:

- Quit smoking and avoid secondhand smoke.
- Engage in aerobic exercise 30-60 minutes, most days of the week.
- Adopt a low-fat, healthy diet.
- Achieve and maintain a healthy body weight.
- Keep blood pressure less than 120/80. High blood pressure increases the heart's workload, causing the heart to thicken and become stiffer.
- Have your cholesterol checked. Women's HDL, or good cholesterol, should be greater than 50; the higher the better. LDL, or bad cholesterol, should be less than 100 or as recommended by your health care provider based on risk level. Triglycerides should be below 150.
- Control diabetes. Diabetes seriously increases the risk of developing cardiovascular disease.
- Develop strategies to cope with stress.
- Have at least yearly health checkups and know your family history.

SUNRISE HORSE FARM

We would like to take this opportunity to share more about our program here at Sunrise.

Our mission statement is: Encouraging youth to find hope in tomorrow.

Thanks to Angie Schambureck for the scrapbooking event in January. It was a fun time for the kids and their families. On Sunday, February 14, we had our Valentine's Party. Thanks to Dia & Jeff Osinga from Green Bay for providing the ceramics for painting. As one of the boys said, "We had a blast."

Area schools bring out students once or twice a week to brush and feed the horses, which consists of mixing the grain and feeding hay - weather permitting they also have fun riding. Sometimes there is hay to unload, water tanks to clean and refill, and mucking out the manure. The students enjoy themselves and we have a great time.

To be a part of the program at Sunrise or to volunteer, please contact us at: 920-772-4135. We are in need of volunteers on the weekends to do the chores and/or to help with the Sunrise Kids.

Thank you for your support which enables us to reach out to the children and teens. There is no charge for the program as we operate solely on charitable contributions.

The Miracle Worker Upholstery

Hello, My name is Lucas Behnke. I recently moved my upholstery business to the Behnke Country Care in Reedsville. This is my new permanent home for my business. I started out about a year and a half ago running my business out of my home and my dad's garage. As time has gone on, my business has grown to the point of needing a more permanent place.

I am so happy to have the opportunity to have a nice spot in Reedsville.

I started upholstering right out of high school at Best Craft Furniture in 1996. I spent ten years there learning all about furniture manufacturing. I really grew to love the furniture business during my time there.

I gained a great respect for keeping furniture quality high in this modern age of "disposable" furniture. I let all my potential customers know that if you have a good sturdy piece of furniture it is far better to reupholster it than to replace it. I also now do automotive, marine, snowmobile, and tractor seats.

Basically, if it is upholstered, I will redo it. I am looking forward to spending many years in this community and getting to know many of you.

I can be reached at 920-418-0372.

The Panther Pride Club News

With the winter sports now over and the spring track, baseball and softball season on the horizon, the PPC would like to thank all who patronized the concessions during the past basketball season. Congratulations to the Boys and Girls Basketball and the Wrestling program on a successful season that saw tremendous efforts by athletes and coaching staffs. The success of any sport is measured by the growth of the participants both individually and as a team, all Reedsville student programs instill and nurture that growth. We thank all the coaches and advisors who help the kids be all that they can be.

PPC internal news both the President and Vice President are grateful owners of new knees and are progressing slowly but steadily. The PPC would like to thank the volunteers who helped with concessions during their rehab period. We look forward to your continued support of concession stands during the track and softball seasons.
