It is Back to School Time

"The illiterate of the 21st century will not be those who cannot read and write, but those who cannot learn, unlearn and relearn." - Alvin Toffler

Remembering Reedsville: Who is George Reed?

George Reed, the founder of Reedsville, was born in 1807. He attended Middlebury College in Vermont and became very interested in law. In 1834 he moved to Milwaukee, where he was joined in 1835 by his parents and brothers. He soon became a farmer in Waukesha County and became a delegate to the first (unsuccessful) state constitutional convention (1846). In 1850 he moved to Manitowoc County, where he served for several years as county judge. Judge Reed and another pioneer resident, Jacob Lueps, purchased the present town of Reedsville in 1854 – fifty-six blocks in all. At that time, the Village was known as Mud Creek, from the small stream of that name flowing through the village. Reed died in the Newhall House fire in Milwaukee in 1883, where the lives of 71 of the 300 people in the hotel were killed.

Up Next: Visitors to Pinecrest Historical Village will find a Reedsville sign in the Collins Depot. Reedsville? Is it a misprint or not? The answer will be in the next edition of the Reedsville News!

Pride of Reedsville

On June 25, 2011 at the state AMVETS convention in Eau Claire, Emily Rataichek was installed as the state president of the AMVETS Auxiliary. She is a member of Auxiliary 1051 of Stevens Point. They live in Reedsville. Her husband, Cletus, was State Commander from 2006-2007. They have four children and seven grandchildren. It will be an exciting year.

Reedsville Area Garden Club

Hats off to workers who are keeping our flower beds and flower pots weeded, watered and cared for during these summer months. Don't they look wonderful? However, we hope people will view them and not take things we put in them.

All of these things cost money and we work hard to raise the funds for our club. The Garden Club has a good selection of perennial for your garden. Come to Corner House for the selection. Cost varies from $1.00 - $3.00 - $5.00 depending on the type or size.

There are many community organizations in Reedsville. Get Involved!

Each of us tries our best everyday, putting forth a collective effort for the good of the community. I know several hard working people in the community who day in and day out give back to their community in large and small ways, from picking up the trash you see on your walk, to consistently devoting their time to different fundraisers or community events. I applaud their efforts and know that this is just something they do because they know it needs to be done. The strength in a community lies in the people. If people do not give themselves to the community, the community has a very difficult time giving back to it's residents the expectations that every person is entitled to in their daily lives, growing in the community that surrounds them.

This is a calling to all small community members to look to your organizations and leaders for a chance to provide a service for the betterment of all. Choose one event, program, organization, or one day a year that you will dedicate your time to for community outreach. Then you can pick the one thing you really wish you could do, to serve, to give and accept at the same time. Community based action is essential to the success of community development and the social and economic well-being of all the locals who reside within its territorial borders. If not today, then think of this calling the next time you see a chance to give yourself back to your community. I guarantee, although the reward is not noticeable at first, you will see the reward and possibly look forward to doing it again the following year.

Free concert to be held at St. John-St. James on the 7th of September

Chris Driesbach is homeless and couldn't be happier. Five years ago, he paid off his debts, sold his belongings and got in his car to travel the country.

Driesbach is a Christian musician, originally from New Orleans. When Hurricane Katrina hit the city, however, the condo he was living in as well as the church he was a member of, were flooded and nearly destroyed. What followed is a wonderful story of rebuilding and rebirth as his church body rallied to restore the church buildings and many members' homes. To Driesbach, that was reason enough to drop everything and hit the road to share his music and his message of thanks.

"It's been a dream of mine to do this," he said. "I'm very grateful to live this way." Chris has performed over 900 concerts in WELS and ELS Lutheran churches in 34 states since then and recorded 5 CDs of original Christian music including songs for children and a collection of favorite hymns.

Driesbach will be performing in Reedsville, September 7th at St. John-St. James Ev. Lutheran Church, 219 Manitowoc Street 635, bringing "a little bit of inspiration, a little bit of joy," according to Pastor Tim Nommensen. Admission to the 7pm concert is free.

The road that led Driesbach to becoming a Christian is anything but average. He grew up in a dysfunctional household, he said, and turned to alcohol at 14 to cope. Before long, the coping mechanism became a long lasting addiction. All the while, Driesbach was a proud atheist, renouncing the idea of a God and willing to debate that fact with anyone who disagreed.

That all changed one morning, however, when Driesbach woke up with the shakes – a slang term for withdrawal.

"It really scared me because I realized I was dying of alcoholism," he said. "I was desperate and I was dying."

Driesbach joined a 12 Step Program for alcoholics and has been sober for 24 years. 9 years later he met a Lutheran pastor who invited him to a Bible Information Class. "That absolutely changed my life," he said, "but I don't take credit for that."

Musically, Driesbach's songs are varied: country, reggae, folk and some rock and roll. The lyrics, however, are much more important, he said. Each song is about his Christian life path, the inspiration he takes from it and the hope he holds for the future.

"I'm having the time of my life," said Driesbach. "I thank God every day for it."

Please don't ignore chronic heartburn

It's estimated that more than 60 million Americans experience heartburn at least once a month, and more than a quarter of them feel the burn every day, according to the American College of Gastroentology.

The unpleasant sensation of burning discomfort behind the breastbone is the most common symptom of gastroesophageal reflux disease or GERD.

Too much stomach acid in the esophagus can cause a painful and irritating inflammation of the esophagus. Chronic heartburn, or GERD, develops when stomach acid repeatedly comes into contact with the lining of the esophagus.

In addition to heartburn, other symptoms of GERD may include chest pain (heart disease needs to be ruled out), hoarseness, trouble swallowing, dry cough and bad breath. If you find yourself using over-the-counter antacids more than twice a week, please seek medical advice so your condition can be properly diagnosed and treated.

Many people think heartburn is uncomfortable, but not necessarily a serious health problem. This isn't true. If heartburn occurs frequently (at least twice a week) it can lead to serious health consequences.

If left untreated, GERD can lead to esophagitis, bleeding and ulcers, Barrett's esophagus (a precancerous condition) or even cancer.

Please talk to your health care provider about the severity and frequency of your heartburn symptoms, since GERD is a very treatable condition, either through lifestyle modifications or drug therapy.

FOUR FACETS OF A BRILLIANT BODY

#1 CORE HEALTH

Core Health is about building a solid foundation for good and lasting health. Core health starts with proper amounts of vital nutrients, including: vitamins, minerals, fiber, enzymes, essential fatty acids, and antioxidants.

VITAMINS are substances needed by the body for normal growth and function.

MINERALS are needed for your body to function normally.

FIBER is the indigestible food stuff found in whole grains, fruits and vegetables. It is vital to the health of the colon and heart because it absorbs waste, toxins, cholesterol and provides bulk to move them through the colon and out of the body.

ENZYMES help your body get the most from food, breaking down the food into the basic nutrients the body needs.

ANTIOXIDANTS sweep up and neutralize free radicals produced as a byproduct of normal body processes. Free radicals can cause cell damage from cell abnormalities to premature aging.

Key NSP products for Core Health are: Super Supplemental Vitamins and Minerals - provides 100 percent or more of the Daily Values for 12 essential vitamins, offering especially generous amounts of B vitamins for energy. It also offers significant amounts of 13 important minerals and contains two powerful antioxidants: lutein and lycopene.

Super Trio - is a one-month supply of basic nutrition, making proper nourishment simple and convenient. Each packet contains: Super Supplemental Vitamins & Minerals, Super Omega-3 EPA, and Super ORAC, packed with powerful antioxidants.

Clean Start is a safe, effective two-week colon cleanse program.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR DRINKING WATER

Monitoring Requirements Not Met for Reedsville Waterworks

We are required to monitor your drinking water for specific contaminants on a regular basis. Results of regular monitoring are an indicator of whether or not your drinking water meets health standards. Between 10/01/2010 and 12/31/2010, we did not monitor for coliform bacteria contaminants, and therefore cannot be sure of the quality of your drinking water during that time. There are no special precautions you need to take at this time. However, it is important to remember that the quality of your drinking water was not known at that time.

What was the cause of the missed monitoring requirements? The sample was not collected due to operator error. However, a coliform bacteria sample was collected on January 5, 2011 and again on June 14, 2011. Both samples were safe.

What is being done to correct the problem? The operator will routinely review the monitoring requirements to make sure samples are not missed.

If you have questions regarding the safety of our drinking water, please contact:

Reedsville Alumni Association looking for Alumni

The Reedsville High School Alumni Association was formed back in 1957 by a group of alumni who wanted to do the following:

Unite in closer union and friendship the Alumni of Reedsville High School;

To preserve and strengthen the traditions of their school;

And to further the interest in higher education by financially supporting the Reedsville Alumni Scholarship Fund.

To date there has been more than $35,000 given away in scholarships. Currently, the major fundraiser for the scholarship fund is the annual newsletter. Through the generosity of some of our Alumni members, we have been able to keep up this tradition.

It is that time of year to do the annual mailing. We are asking that anybody that is planning or as already celebrated a class reunion this year to remember the alumni and forward any updated addresses or email addresses that you may have. We are in great need of updates from the classes of 1986, 1991, 1996, 2001 and 2006. If anybody has this information, you can mail it to: Reedsville Alumni, P.O. Box 431, Reedsville, WI 54230; or it can be emailed to: reedsvillealumni@hotmail.com. Also, those who are planning your reunions for 2012 – classes of 1962, 1967, 1972, 1977, 1982, 1987, 1992, 1997, 2002, & 2007 – please remember the Alumni Association with your lists.

Also, there are a few past scholarship recipients that we are looking for updates on. If anyone has information on the following, please contact us at either of the addresses listed above: from the class of 1962 – Michael O'Connell; class of 1982 – Kay (Kiekhaefer) Pech; class of 1985 – Dawn Zarnoth; class of 1990 – Janine (Fritsch) Gundrum; class of 1991 – Sara (Phipps) Gruel; class of 1994 – Brian Krueger and Holly Rusch.
